What happens if you do not feel anything when you pray or even experienced by everyone who prays. Then to persevere faithfully is itself already a prayer.

Distractions during prayer, the feeling of interior emptiness and dryness, indeed, even an aversion to prayer are experienced by everyone who prays. Then to persevere faithfully is itself already a prayer.

Even St. Therese of Lisieux for a long time could not sense God's love at all. Shortly before her death she was visited one night by her sister Celine. She noticed that Therese's hands were clasped together. "What are you doing? You should try to sleep" Celine said. "I cannot. I am suffering too much. But I am praying", Therese replied. "And what do you say to Jesus?" "I do not say anything to him. I love him".

Prayer is like going to a gas station where we get free fuel for our long journeys and extreme challenges. Praying does not take time away from other things but, rather, doubles the remaining time and fills it with intrinsic meaning

Words of Pope Francis

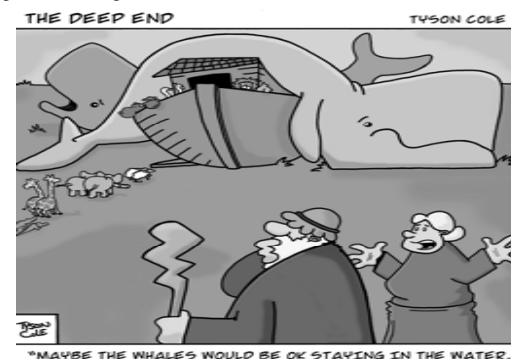

There is no better medicine to heal so many wounds than a heart capable of mercy.

Thought for the Week

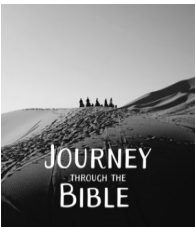

"Always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence." (1 Peter 3:15)

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life

In 1997, Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is held annually on the February 2nd Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. The Mass for the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter-in-Chains on February 2, 2018 at 7 pm followed by a reception in the Knights of Columbus Bishop Doyle Hall. His Excellency Most Rev. Bishop Miehms will preside at the Mass. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, come to the Mass on February 2 at the Cathedral, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Poinsettia Info

Any parishioner who donated a poinsettia in memory of their loved is invited to take it home after Mass. Please leave the plate behind so we can re-use it next year.
