Fr. Ace's Holidays

Fr. Ace will be taking his holidays beginning Monday and visiting home for five weeks.

"I always look forward to this time; I get to see my family and friends."

Deacon Doug will be celebrating Communion Services Wed-Fri each week.

Why is there music at liturgies, and what kind of music must it be to be suitable for liturgy?

Where words are not enough to praise God, music comes to our aid. When we turn to God, there is always something ineffable and unsaid left over. Then music can help out. In rejoicing, language becomes song—that is why the angels sing. Music in a worship service should make prayer more beautiful and more fervent, move more deeply the hearts of all in attendance and bring them closer to God, and prepare for God a feast of melody.

Words of Pope Francis

Let's promote friendship and respect between men and women of different religious traditions in order to build a world of peace.

Offertory Counters Needed

Can you spare an hour per month?

There is an urgent need for more Offertory counters. Come join our ministry. You will be part of a team of 3 parishioners who count once a month. The same weekend each month.

Counting takes place following the 11:00 Mass in the Parish Office. This takes one hour of your time. Basic police check and parish screening is required as per the Diocesan screening policy, the cost will be reimbursed by the parish (with receipt). Please contact Karen Wilson 905 987 5403 or the parish office 905 987 5446 if you are interested or would like more information.

New Voices Needed

The 11:00 o'clock Mass choir is looking for new members – particularly young people although members in their second childhood are also welcome. Knowledge of music is not a requirement, just the ability to read and wanting to participate and enjoy singing.

For high school students – choir participation is recognized for the 40 hours community involvement that's needed for graduation. Anyone interested please leave your name, phone number or Email with any of the choir members.

Message Centre Information

Parishioners are reminded to check the mail slot for any schedules (Lectors, Church Cleaners, Eucharistic ministers, Ushers, etc) or any other information from the ministry you are involved in.
