Welcome!

How can we distinguish serious sins (mortal sins) from less serious (venial) sins?

Serious sin destroys the divine power of love in a person's heart, without which there can be no eternal beatitude.

Hence it is also called mortal sin. Serious sin breaks with God, whereas venial sin only strains the relationship with him.

A serious sin cuts a person off from God. One requirement for such a sin is that it be opposed an important value, for instance, directed against life, against marriage, or God (for example, murder, blasphemy, adultery, and so on) and that it be committed with full knowledge and full consent. Venial sins are opposed to secondary values or are committed without full knowledge of their seriousness or without full consent of the will. Such sins disrupt the relationship with God but do not sever it.

Words of Pope Francis

The Family is the hope of the future. Let us pray especially for families facing serious difficulties: may Our Lord assist them.
