From the Pastor's Desk

We welcome Fr. Ace who is back from holidays!

Are we responsible for the sins of other people?

No, we are not responsible for other people's sins, unless we are guilty of misleading or seducing another person to sin or of cooperating in it or of encouraging someone else to sin or of neglecting to offer a timely warning or our help.

Is there such a thing as structures of sin?

Structures of sin exist only in a manner of speaking. A sin is always connected with an individual person, who knowingly and willingly agrees to something evil.

Nevertheless, there are societal situations and institutions that are so contradictory to God's commandments that we speak about "structures of sin"—yet these, too, are the consequence of personal sins.

"And so both virtue and vice are in our power. For when the deed is in our power, so is the omission, and when we can say No, we can also say yes." Aristotle

Words of Pope Francis

The Eucharist gives us the strength to produce the fruits of good works, and to live true Christian lives.

Priest Benefit Fund Collection – June 24

The purpose of the Priest Benefit Fund is to ensure that the retired and sick priests of the diocese receive financial benefits each month to supplement the federal pension and to provide a basic health insurance plan. The Diocese supports priests in retirement or those on sick leave every month through your generosity. Your help is needed to support the annual Diocesan Priest Benefit Fund collection during the month of June and to increase donations throughout the year.

We also ask you to consider supporting the Priest Benefit Fund financially through your financial planning and/or the designation of your estate.

"Our retired priests & those who are burdened with illness have been generous shepherds through their many years of dedicated pastoral service within our Diocese. They celebrated significant moments of faith for you & for the parish communities they served. Your financial support to the Priest Benefit Fund allows the Diocese to assist priest in illness & years of retirement."

Most Reverend Bishop Daniel Miehm.

Give to those who have given a lifetime.

Mass Intention Requests

The prayers of our church are powerful especially the celebration of daily Mass. Having a Mass said for a loved one alive or deceased, honouring a special birthday or anniversary or special intention – these are all marked in the most special way when a Mass is said. Please call or drop by the Parish Office to arrange a Mass intention.
