From the Pastor's Desk

Are we responsible for everything we do consciously and voluntarily?

Everyone is responsible for everything they do consciously and voluntarily.

No one can be held (fully) responsible for something they did under coercion, out of fear, ignorance, under the influence of drugs or the power of bad habits. The more a person knows about the good and practices the good, the more he moves away from the slavery of sin (Rom 6:17; 1 Cor 7:22).

God desires that such free persons should (be able to) take responsibility for themselves, for their environment, and for the whole earth. But all of God's merciful love is also for those who are not free; every day he offers them an opportunity to allow themselves to be set free for freedom.

Words of Pope Francis

Try reading the Gospel for at least five minutes every day. You will see how it changes your life.

Thought for the Day

I trust in You Lord

Fill my mind with pure thoughts, my heart with joyful hope and
 my body with a renewed strength.
 I am nothing without You Lord. Amen
