From the Pastor's Desk

Must we allow a person to use his free will, even when he decides in favour of evil?

For a person to be able to use his freedom is a fundamental right based on his human dignity. An individual's freedom can be curtailed only if the exercise of his freedom is detrimental to human dignity and the freedom of others.

Freedom would be no freedom at all if it were no the freedom to choose even what is wrong. It would violate the dignity of a man if we did not respect his freedom. One of the central duties of the country is to protect the liberties of all its citizens (freedom of religion, of assembly, and association, freedom of opinion, freedom to choose one's occupation and so on). The freedom of one citizen is the limit to the freedom of one another.

Words of Pope Francis

Prayer is never in vain: it always brings forth something new that, sooner or later, bears fruit.

Thought for the Day

"Faith is to believe what you do not see. The reward of faith is to see what you believe."
 St. Augustine

Special Collection for Vocations, Youth and Family Programs. (August 4 - 5, 2018)

Your generosity is appreciated to support these important programs. Here are some reflections about the impact of programs offered to the young people in our Diocese through the Vocations' Office. Fr. John Perdue, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Peterborough.

"Whether Carpenter's Cup retreats, Vocation hockey events, or other Vocations activities, I always go away feeling encouraged to grow in my Faith and be open to the priesthood. I've really appreciated the opportunity to spend time with other Faith-filled young men and priests and I find there is always a positive atmosphere. The Vocations activities are helping me learn what is means to be a true man."
 Caleb Duketow, Grade 11, St. Peter's High School, Peterborough

"The Peterborough Vocations Office uses the community's generous donations to host retreats and other events that help to develop supportive relationships and feed the youth, spiritually and physically! The Vocations Office has played a key role in my own spiritual development and in strengthening my relationship with Jesus. I've learned valuable discernment skills and used them in my own life to discern the next steps now that my University education has come to an end."
 - Elizabeth Rylski, 2018 Graduate of Trent University

"Over the past few years the Quo Vadis young men's discernment program has offered me tremendous spiritual growth and has taught me a great deal. Without Quo Vadis many young men like myself may not get the direction that they need in life to live for Christ. This program is essential for young men in the direction of their faith and has only brought great success in leading young men to Christ."
 - Hayden Milburn, parishioner of St. Joseph's Parish, Bowmanville
