The Sources of Prayer

How can my everyday routine be a school of prayer?

Everything that happens, every encounter can become the occasion for a prayer. For the more deeply we live in union with God, the deeper we understand the world around us.

Someone who already seeks union with Jesus in the morning can be a blessing to the people he meets, even his opponents and enemies. Over the course of the day he casts all his cares on the Lord. He has more peace within himself and radiates it. He makes his judgments and decisions by asking himself how Jesus would act at that moment. He overcomes fear by staying close to God. In desperate situations he is not without support. He carries the peace of heaven within him and thereby brings it into the world. He is full of gratitude and joy for the beautiful things, but also endures the difficult things that he encounters. This attentiveness to God is possible even at work.

Can we be sure that our prayers are heard?

Our prayers, which we offer in Jesus' name, go to the place where Jesus' prayers also went: to the heart of our heavenly Father.

We can be sure of this if we trust Jesus. For Jesus has opened again for us the way to heaven, which had been barred by sin. Since Jesus is the way to God, Christians conclude their prayers with the phrase "we ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord."

Words of Pope Francis

Hope is the virtue of a heart that doesn't lock itself into darkness, that doesn't dwell on the past, but is able to see a tomorrow.

Sunday Funny

Reaching the end of a job interview, the Human Resources Officer asks a young Engineer fresh out of the Institute of Technology, "And what starting salary are you looking for?" The engineer replies, "In the region of $125,000 a year, depending on the benefits package." The interviewer inquires, "Well, what would you say to a package of five weeks vacation, 14 paid holidays, full medical and dental, company matching retirement fund to 50% of salary, and a company car leased every two years, say, a red Corvette?" The engineer sits up straight and says, "Wow! Are you kidding?" The interviewer replies, "Yeah, but you started it."

First let me thank you for your interest in our summer program of an overview of our faith. We were delighted with the response and the sessions seemed to be well received.

For those of you who were able to attend - we'd love some feedback on where we might improve. For those of you who couldn't make the meetings, we are thinking of repeating them some time in the future - please let us know if you would be interested.

As we stated at the beginning, these sessions were developed to help those inquiring about our faith to understand enough to decide if they would be open to pursue their interest further. They are usually done on a one-on-one basis. While we enjoyed the opportunity to offer these as a refresher to existing Catholics we really would like the opportunity to show them to those who are not yet of our faith.

If you know of such a person we encourage you to let them know that if they call the parish office (905-987-5446) we would be happy to chat with them and, hopefully, arrange to go through the sessions on a one-on-one basis at a time and place that suits them.

Our task is to present the Catholic Church to them but to let them decide if they want to go further. We ask no commitment from them other than to agree to meet.

We are all called to share our faith and who knows, a simple invitation from you might just be the encouragement someone needs to make that first, all important, contact.

We look forward to a deluge of inquiries.
