The Way of Prayer

When should a person pray?

Form the earliest times Christians have prayed at least in the morning, at meals, and in the evening. Someone who does not pray regularly will soon not pray at all.

Anyone who loves another person and all day long never gives that person a sign of his love does not really love him. So it is with God, too. Anyone who truly seeks him will keep sending him signals of his longing for his company and friendship. Get up in the morning and give the day to God, asking for his BLESSING and to "be there" in all your meetings and needs. Thank him, especially at mealtimes. At the end of the day, place everything into his hands, ask him for forgiveness, and pray for peace for yourself and others. A great day—full of signs of life that reach God.

"In a spiritual way we reach...(through our prayers) all of God's creation, from the farthest planets to the depths of the ocean, a lonely convent chapel as well as an abandoned church, an abortion clinic in on city and a prison cell in another..., indeed, heaven and the gates of hell. We are connected with every part of creating. We pray with every creature and for every creature, so that all for whom the blood of God's Son was shed may be saved ad sanctified." St. Teresa of Calcutta (1910-1997)

Words of Pope Francis

When we are feeling sad, when it feels like everything is going wrong, we should remember: "God loves me. God never abandons me".

Needs of the Church in Canada – September 24

Catholic communities across our country are involved in this annual collection which supports the pastoral work of our Bishops nationally and internationally. It is in the interest of the Church in Canada for this collection to be as effective as possible. The Church needs to maintain its services in order to carry out its mission at the heart of our world, by responding to pastoral needs and providing spiritual leadership.

The Bishops of Canada thank you in advance for your charity, for your commitment to the Church, and to your generosity in following Christ.
